PICTORIAL DIRECTORIES

If you had your picture taken for the Pictorial Directory you may come to the parish office during normal week-day business hours or after Mass on the weekends to pick one up. We apologize for the delay—but they are here and we hope you enjoy them.

Dear Padre

Do I need to monitor movies?

During the winter months my family turns into media hounds. We are constantly renting movies, going to them in theaters, or watching them on TV. Does the Church give any guidelines for what we should and shouldn't watch?

Movie Lover

Dear Movie Lover,

The bishops of North America have a committee that is specifically devoted to the media and communications. This committee suggests that it is the task of parents to educate their children in the influence of the media, to take responsibility for monitoring what media the family use, and to become role models in the appropriate use of media.

The duty of the Catholic family is to affirm Christian values in its media choices. The first area to look at is how the film or program portrays human life. Is human life shown to be a precious gift from God? Is sexuality linked to life? How is the act of dying presented? Are there moral consequences connected with the actors' actions? The second "yardstick" is how the family is presented in the movie. Does it promote lasting commitments within the context of marriage and the family? Is exploitation, oppression, or neglect of any group of people condoned or even promoted? Is respect shown for a variety of cultures? The final measurement concerns Scripture and Christian belief. Do your media choices foster a sense of the divine, of human destiny beyond this life, of our obligation to forgive and our need for forgiveness? Are compassion, reconciliation, thanksgiving, and moral responsibility affirmed?

All parents must take full responsibility to affirm strong Catholic morals when choosing their family's movies and television programs.

Rev. Paul J. Coury, C.Ss.R.

Today's readings are about being chosen and sent. The prophet Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to use his talents for the people of God. The Gospel recounts the story of the sending of the twelve disciples; and in the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that we, too, are chosen. For what have I been chosen? To whom have I been sent?
